all these papers.

COURT: He has brought them here for the purpose of turning them over. Turning them over to whom?

WITNESS: Whatever authorities are proper.

MR. SIMPSON: I will designate Inspector Underwood to take these papers with this witness. I will have him go over these papers with the witness so that the witness doesn't think he gave us something he did not.

Q What is the name of your attorney, Mr. Algar?

A Algar.

Q And is today the first time you called him up or did you call him up a week ago?

A I told you I called him up a week ago.

Q Did you advise him you had in your possession statements in reference to the Hall-Mills case?

A I did.

Q That is a week ago?

A Oh, I don't know as I did.

Q Oh, now try and know something. Did you a week ago tell him you had these statements?

A I told him I had some papers I thought was connected with the case that belonged to my brother.

Q And you told that about a week ago? A Yes, sir.
